

Federal Contract Law

Course Number: 1047

Length: 5 Days

Primary Delivery Method: Instructor-led live classroom

Alternative Delivery Methods:

Course Description

Gain an understanding of the legal framework behind the FAR to avoid potential contracting liabilities and demonstrate professional competence and growth at your agency or organization. You will walk through the full range of legal issues that frequently arise in federal contracting by reading and evaluating actual cases from the Comptroller General, the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals, and the courts.

Note: If you are a federal contract specialist in the GS-1102 occupational series, you may be required to take CON 216: Legal Considerations in Contracting instead of this training course.

Intended Audience

This training course is appropriate for contracting, program, and financial personnel who are involved in federal contracting, as well as federal contractors.
