

CON 216: Legal Considerations in Contracting

Course Number: 1216

Length: 5 Days

Primary Delivery Method: Instructor-led live classroom

Alternative Delivery Methods:

Course Description

Take a close look at the legal considerations that must be taken into account during the procurement process. You will learn the basic principles and sources of law relevant to procurement through this Federal Acquisition Certification Contracting (FAC-C) and Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) Level II certification training course. You will also gain an understanding of other legal issues that may arise during a contract, including protests, assignment of claims, disputes, fraud, contractor debt, performance issues, and contract termination.

Note: If you are not looking for Level II Certification, consider Federal Contract Law as an alternative.

Intended Audience

This course is designed for contracting personnel pursuing FAC-C or DAWIA Level II certification.
