Course Description

This experience provides organizations and leaders with a deeper leadership development experience focused on communication, collaboration, organizational alignment, team cohesion, and leadership effectiveness – all on the battlefields in Gettysburg, PA.

Through facilitated discussion, leadership analysis, and applied learning, participants strengthen practical leadership capabilities designed to support organizational performance in high-accountability environments.

This residential, cohort-based program allows participants to engage more deeply with leadership challenges involving decision-making, communication, organizational complexity, and leadership under pressure.

This program is delivered in partnership with the Lincoln Leadership Institute.
