Course Title: CON 2440: Construction Contracting

Course #: 1021

Duration: 5 Days

Delivery Method: Instructor-led live classroom

Alternative Delivery Methods: Instructor-led online (synchronous)

1. What business or organizational need does this course address?

Explore the unique set of guidelines and approaches related to contracting for construction. You will learn the nuances of the construction acquisition and contracting phases in order to successfully obtain goods and services for your agency or organization. You will gain the knowledge and skills to contract for federal government construction—from acquisition planning through closeout. You will learn how to conduct market research and administer the contract.

2. Who should attend?

This course is designed for contracting personnel involved in the construction process. Additionally, Contracting Officer's Representatives involved in construction project oversight may find this course to be beneficial.

3. What will I learn how to do in this course?

- Given a construction requirement to build a new facility, renovate an existing one, or maintain existing facilities, apply the required knowledge of laws, regulations, and procedures to the act of properly issuing and administering a construction contract in accordance with federal acquisition laws, regulations, and best business practices.
- Given a construction contract requirement, devise a construction acquisition plan in accordance with FAR part 7, DFARS 207 (if DoD), and agency policies and procedures.
- After receipt of a construction contracting request, describe how to develop a construction solicitation package in accordance with FAR, DFARS (if DoD), and agency policies and procedures.
- After receiving bids or proposals in response to a construction solicitation, evaluate the appropriate construction contract awardee.
- Given a construction contract, diagnose and determine the applicable construction contract administration (compliance) approach, using FAR, DFARS (if DoD), regulation/guidelines, and best practices.
- Given a changed condition on a construction contract, select the appropriate clause and describe the remedy for the situation in accordance with federal and DoD acquisition laws, regulations, and best business practices.
- Given a construction contractor's invoice, verify for construction progress payments and, at contract conclusion, describe appropriate actions necessary to contract closeout.
